

ConneXions I-Track

Reach the Nations Project

Context: Individual

Focus: Competencies

These components can all be worked on at the same time. In fact, it would be more profitable to do them concurrently than consecutively.

Please note that this project has 2 possible tracks:

Big Track: Do all 6 parts, including 1a.

Little Track: Do all 6 parts, including 1b.

If you have a significant missions call on your life you must do the Big Track.

- 1a. Study through the Perspectives workbook. Proceed according to the ConneXions Perspectives Study Guide.
- 1b. Study through the Perspectives Exposure workbook.
2. Listen to the tape series by Howard Foltz. As you listen, please complete the accompanying study guide. Some updated statistics sheets are given with the course along with the ones he references in the tapes.
3. Read articles, etc. in Additional Material for ConneXions Reach the Nations Project.
4. Watch these videos, individually or in your team:
 - William Carey. Either one.
 - Count Zinzendorf: His Work Set the Stage for Modern Missions.
 - First Fruits: Zinzendorf and the Moravians.
5. Read these articles:
 - Editorial by Ralph Winter.
 - The Re-Amateurization of Mission by Ralph Winter.
6. For the entire time that you are doing this project, as a part of your daily devotions please pray each day for the nations as outlined in Operation World by Patrick Johnston.
7. When you have finished all the above work, please write a 500 word paper on your personal life plan for missions involvement. Please do this very prayerfully, thoughtfully and carefully. Please submit this paper to your Pastoral Coach and discuss your plan with him or her. Also please submit this paper to the Director, giving notice to the Assistant Director of so doing.
