

We created our nine month design by starting from the goal and working backwards, through the process.

We implement our nine month program as a means to reach the “5C” goal through the transformational “4D” process.

