

I will dress as one who is serious about my commitment to ConneXions. I will wear shoes and jeans or slacks. I will not let my hair be messy and unruly as my appearance can and does portray messages to others about me.

I am focused and should portray a message of focus to those that see and interact with me.

I will commit to being ready to hold each other accountable by extended patience with other members and discussing with my leader any continued problems that a person or the cohort is experiencing or causing.
